Cooperative Principles

Cooperatives around the world follow these 7 Cooperative Principles:

1. Open Membership. Anyone can join regardless of race, creed, or nationality.
2. Democratic Member Control. Member/owners have one vote regardless of their level of financial investment.
3. Member Economic Participation. Member/owners own and finance the business and share in its successes and failures.
4. Autonomy and Independence. All business agreements ensure the business stays in the member/owners' control.
5. Education, Training, and Information. Co-ops educate others about cooperatives and also train their employees, board, and communities about their values and mission.
6. Cooperation among Cooperatives. Cooperatives strengthen the cooperative movement by working together through local, national, and international structures.
7. Concern for Community. Co-ops encourage the sustainable development of the local community.

If you would like to become an owner of Good Foods Co-op, a Vermont nonprofit cooperative (the "Co-op"), and participate in the Co-op, you must purchase one share of Co-op stock for $200. Your rights as an owner are described in our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. You may choose any of the following options to pay the purchase price for your stock:

PAYMENT OPTIONS (check one):

- OPTION 1. You may pay the full price ($200) at this time. $200 is enclosed.
- OPTION 2. You may pay $20 now and the balance in 9 monthly installments of $20 each. $20 is enclosed.
- OPTION 3. You may pay $45 now ($40 share payment plus $5/year nonrefundable admin fee). The balance of the purchase price in 4 annual share payments of $45 (which includes the nonrefundable $5/year admin fee). $45 is enclosed.
- OPTION 4. You may pay $25 now ($20 share payment plus $5/year nonrefundable admin fee) and the balance of the purchase price in 9 annual share payments of $25 each (which includes the nonrefundable $5/year admin fee). $25 is enclosed.

If you fail to make your share payment when due, owner benefits will stop (10% owner discount, voting privileges, and sales accruing toward a patronage rebate) and you will be placed in inactive status. As soon as a payment is made, owner benefits will resume. Your share certificate will be issued when the share purchase is paid in full.
