HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

It's holiday time once again and now more than ever, we want you to know how much you mean to us. In addition to providing community-focused high-quality products throughout the year, we want to also give you the gift of mindful holiday giving. Most of our gifts are handmade and Fair Trade Certified and all of them are individually chosen by our amazing Wellness Department Manager, Matthew (pictured below and with bison.) As you can see by the surrounding photos, we're pretty excited about these selections and we hope that you are too. Whether you're buying for yourself or taking time to "treat yo'self," we hope you enjoy our selections and, from our co-op family to yours, we hope you have a joyous holiday season.

From Star Trek to Sunflowers to Sloths and Tiny Houses to Outhouses to Hipster Animals and everything in between, we have a calendar for every taste. With dozens of wall, desk and engagement calendars at less than $20, you can buy one for everyone on your list.

We have two calendar selections from right here in Kentucky. The Woodford Humane Society's planner features pictures of adopted animals and proceeds go to help pets find homes. The 40th edition of the Simple Life-styles calendar celebrates Appalachia and proceeds go to help educate, advocate and demonstrate innovation in the mountains of eastern Kentucky and beyond.

MINGA FAIR TRADE IMPORTS

This company puts their belief that everyone should earn not just a “living wage,” but a “sharing wage” into practice. They pay all of their artisans enough to allow each person to share their income with their families and communities. The word “Minga” comes from the Quechua idea of a communal work day that benefits everyone involved.
